

TWELVE RESOLUTIONS FOR THE NEW YEAR.

1. I will recollect every day that I am mortal, and that in this life I am prepared for eternity.
2. I will consider myself accountable to God for the right use of my time.
3. I will take the Bible as "a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path," and will pray for the Holy Spirit to teach me, and to impress all its truths on my heart.
4. I will keep sacred the Lord's Day, and faithfully attend on the worship of God.
5. I will "keep the heart with all diligence," when all things go well with me, and in time of trouble.
6. I will make it my constant endeavor to do all the good I can to all with whom I am connected.
7. I will not eat or drink any kind or quantity of food that I have reason to believe will be hurtful to health or unfit me for the duties of life.
8. If I am tempted to anger or speak hastily, I will take time for reflection.
9. I will live under a deep conviction that I am a sinner utterly unable to save myself, and to trust Christ alone for the pardon of my sins, and the salvation of my soul.
10. Under a sense of my weakness I will daily pray for the Spirit of God to make me holy in soul and body.
11. I will strive after holiness of heart and life, through the knowledge and love of my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
12. I will continually look forward to the pure, perfect and lasting enjoyments of Heaven.—Ex.

Proud of His Business Co-workers.

"Yes, I am real proud of the splendid body of men and women we have to represent us in the various parts of the country; many of them are among the best men and women that ever walked the sod, and we wish to employ a few more." This is the explanation that Mr. B. F. Johnson of the firm B. F. Johnson & Co., Richmond, Va., gives of their advertisement.

THE GOSPEL HAMMER —AND— HIGHWAY GRADER.

By S. H. BASHOR.

IN CLOTH, postpaid, 20c.

The author says in his preface: "So many books have been written about Christ, telling people to come to Christ, yet failing to give a tangible idea of how Christ is to be found. We thought of letting this work fill that place: Tell people of Christ, when to seek for salvation and how to obtain it." We think the little work meets the want very well.

MRS. E. M. SIMPSON.

ROSSVILLE, IND., August 22, 1893.—
S. E. Dubbel, Waynesboro, Pa. Dear

Sir: After we have used largely in our own family, and have sold hundreds of dollars worth of your medicines, and do know of their merits justice seems to demand that we should recommend, them to the public. As for the Cough and Croup Cure, it is the best remedy for coughs and colds we have ever used, and is an excellent antidote for that dreadful monster, La Grippe. The Carbolio Ointment is a noble remedy for old sores, cuts, burns, etc., but the Red Thyme Pain Cure has no equal, to our knowledge, for aches of all kinds; bruises, sprains, burns, pains in the stomach, back, head, etc. Where it has been introduced, people say that they cannot do without it. The demand for it is growing rapidly.

J. H. SWIHART.
